THE GOLDEN LOG

Presented by the

Class of 1956

of

DIGHTON HIGH SCHOOL

Dighton, Mass.

Dedication

To Mrs. Smith, with appreciation and affection: appreciation of all her tireless hours spent in guiding us through our four years at D.H.S., and affection earned by her patience, understanding, and motherly guidance.

Editors' Message

We hope that in years to come this yearbook will grow in value and recall many pleasant experiences; that, as you leaf through it, memories will be brought to life, many of them by the sight of an old friend's face; and that it will prove to be, as its theme suggests, an old-fashioned album of recollections.

DIGHTON FOREVER

Dighton forever Dear Alma Mater
Long may she ever firm keep her stand
Her sons and daughters carry together
Her fame throughout the land.
Rah, rah, rah.
Dighton High School
We're all for you
Strong, united, loyal and true
We'll carry on till Victory Is Won
Oh! Dighton, we're all for you

Class Song: MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

Four years ago, we came to high,
And those few years sped swiftly by
We will have these Moments to Remember.

Our football dance, our big success,
We like to think it was the best,
We will have these Moments to Remember.

Tho' students turn to adults,
And the present disappears,
The laughter we were glad to share
Will echo thru the years.

Our Senior year there was much to do,
With caps and gowns and yearbooks, too,
We will have these Moments to Remember.

We yelled our best at every game,
To cheer our players on to fame,
We will have these Moments to Remember.

The Mardi Gras was mighty grand,
It was our Winter Wonderland,
We will have these Moments to Remember.

The Junior Prom, the talent shows,
The play contests we won,
The Christmas Dance and our class trips,
Our trip to Washington.

Our high school years brought happiness
And laid the groundwork for success,
We will have these Moments to Remember.

We, the members of the Class of 1956 of D.H.S., wish to thank you, Mrs. Angus, for your untiring efforts as our homeroom teacher for the last four years. It is with gratitude for your friendly guidance and leadership that we look back on these years.

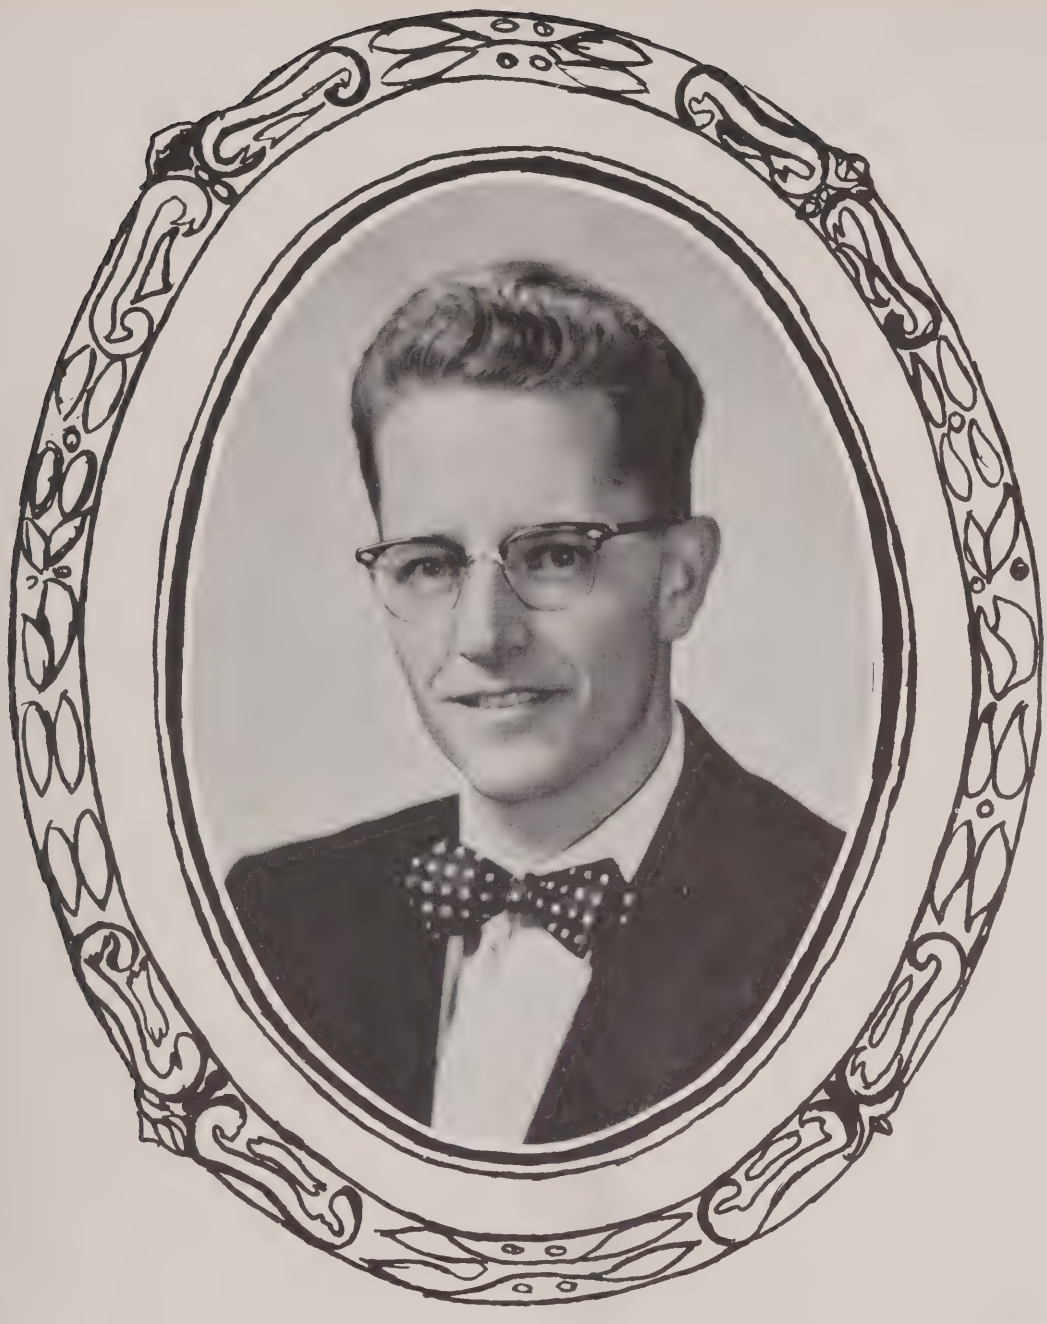
SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

None of us will ever achieve perfection, but we can always strive for improvement.

Best wishes to all the members of the Class of 1956 for a most successful future.

ROBERT T. ROY

Superintendent of Schools



PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

It is the character of the purpose that determines the character of the individual, for a purpose may be good or bad, high or low. It is the ideal, the strength and the definiteness of the purpose that determines the measure of success.

Class Will

We, the industrious pupils of the Class of 1956 of Dighton High School, established in the Town of Dighton, County of Bristol, State of Massachusetts, being agile in mind and lofty in intelligence, do prepare, post, and pronounce the following as and for our last will and testament:

To the Faculty we leave the peace and quiet they have enjoyed during the four tranquil years of our presence.

To the Junior Class we leave the exclusive privilege of inhabiting Room 21.

To the Sophomore Class we leave the acute financial anemia we suffered after the purchase of our class rings.

To the Freshman Class we leave the success we had with every class project we undertook.

Antonia Aguas leaves her French accent to Harold Whitely.

Gilbert Amaral and David Longton would have liked to leave their monitor posts to someone, but unfortunately . . .

Jane Andrews leaves her desire to settle down to Laurelie Walker. Here's hopin'.

Mary Andrews leaves Locker 93 to anyone unlucky enough to get it.

Judy Atwood leaves her piano-playing accomplishment to Suzanne Gurney.

William Benevides leaves his beautiful head of hair to Mr. DeMarco.

Edith Bindon leaves her shortness to Marie Cimino.

Rosemary Borden leaves her pony-tail to Warner Goff.

Ronald Bristol leaves his shop talents to any shop boy who is fortunate enough to get them.

Elaine Broadbent leaves the honor of being Queen of the Mardi Gras to the most popular girl in next year's Senior Class. Don't forget your hanky.

Marion Carpenter leaves her sense of humor to Betty Andrews. Guard it well, Betty.

Howell Carr leaves his ability to get along with shop teachers to "Mac."

Lionel Carr leaves his chemistry knowledge to Mr. Weygand to pass on to some unfortunate Junior.

David Carvalho leaves his talent to get out of shop to any capable person. Good Luck!

Dennis Carvalho leaves his experiences in love to Richard Hermort.

Henry Catabia leaves his ability to hot rod around to Jon Bettencourt.

David Clark leaves his achievement in mathematics to Mrs. Smith to pass on to any deserving freshman.

June Clough leaves her singing ability to Sylvia Barlow.

Sandra Copeland leaves her English proficiency to Sam Pratt.

Bobby DeArruda leaves his ability to get into unusual types of trouble to Brian Corr.

Joan DeMoranville leaves her good marks in Mr. Vitale's classes to Paul Pacheco.

Anne Desautels leaves her love of horses to Helen Haskell.

William Duarte leaves his athletic stardom to Pee Wee Viveiros.

Shirley Ferreira leaves her hairdos to Jeanine Sylvester.

Joan Gracia leaves her short hair cuts to Margaret Aspinall.

Douglas Grant leaves his automobile collection to Paul Bilodeau.

Roland Guillet leaves his hot trombone to anyone who can touch it. Careful now, Mr. Kahn.

Shirley Horton and Barbara Woodis leave their politeness and friendliness to Lyn Simmons.

George Jack leaves his brains to Fred Hartford. Oh, Fred you poor soul!

Richard Kherlopian leaves his permission to walk around with the photographer to Wilfred Berthiaume.

Pat Knox leaves her love of popular music to Myrna Menges.

Beatrice Lefaivre leaves her morning jaunt up the driveway to catch the school bus to anyone who has the needed energy and the right driveway.

Carol Machado leaves her quiet ways to Priscilla Carpenter.

Jayne McCauley leaves her talkativeness to Judy Walker. Use it to advantage, Judy. It's great for arguments.

Pauline Medeiros and Ruth Ann Sears leave their positions as cashiers to any Juniors who want them. Have fun running the registers.

Connie Miller leaves her skill in basketball to Judy Walker.

Lorraine Motta leaves her stateliness to Nancy Cambra.

David O'Connell and Ronald O'Connor leave their mischievous ways to Douglas Arnold and Donald Bacon.

Jennie Pontes leaves her eyes to anyone who can control them.

Betsey Reed leaves her love of Western music to Myrna Menges.

Jimmy Rose leaves his ability to get along with the shop kids to all the upstairs teachers.

Kenny Rose leaves his good nature and favor with the teachers to Manuel Phillips.

Wilma Rose leaves her height to Barbara Sullivan.

Libby Sherman leaves her good nature to Betty Carpentier.

Dolores Silva leaves to any Junior her foresight in knowing when Mr. Vitale is going to ask her a question.

Eleanor Souza leaves her position as captain of the Majorettes to anyone with the ability to fill the post.

Weston Stafford leaves his skill on the basketball court to that rebounding whiz, Bob Cain.

Irene Stanley leaves Dighton High School to anyone who wants it.

Ellis Strange leaves his build to Ronald Lee.

Carolyn Vickers leaves her ability to fool around in English class to anyone who dares to.

James Wallace leaves his love of motorcycling to Mrs. Smith.

Victor Westgate leaves his composure while working on ladder back chairs to Bob Terry.

Carlton Willette leaves his hard times with one particular teacher to John Branco.

Clifford Wood leaves his waistline to any three freshmen big enough to fill it.

Ora Wordell leaves her speed in typing to Irene Simmons.

In Witness whereof we, the testators, have inscribed our names and affixed our insignia on this the fourteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-six (1956).

Class Prophecy

Scene: Lonely cavern.
Hecate, queen of Hades.
Hecate: Come now, you secret, black and midnight hags,
I'll show you the contents of my precious bags. (3 witches enter, dance around steaming cauldron.)
All:

Double, double, toil and trouble,
Fire burn and cauldron bubble.
Round about the cauldron go,
In the facts about all we throw.
Loves that on the balcony started,
Careers and gains, friends made and parted,
As we stir the gory mess,
A wealth of secrets we'll confess.
Then from the cauldron we will pick,
Many omens of the class of '56.
Double, double, toil and trouble,
Fire burn and cauldron bubble.
(witches dance around cauldron)
Cool it with some of Clifford's blood,
Until the charm be firm and good.
Now if the brew is good and clear,
We'll show them what they have to fear.
Now from the cauldron we will draw
Their futures while they sit in awe.
Gilbert Amaral a state trooper will be,
He'll stop Billy Duarte going ninety-three.
A whistle to Gil, a pencil to Bill
For all the forms he'll have to fill.
Jane Andrews will leave a curse
On all her patients when she's a nurse.
We leave to her this bottle of pills
To cure her patients of their ills.
Mary Andrews hates to wash dishes;
To be a secretary is what she wishes.
To her we leave this box of Tide—
She may become the boss's bride.
Antonia Aguas, this is her fate:
Washing and cleaning for a family of eight.
To her we leave this bar of soap,
May she never, never run out of hope.
Judie Atwood will be playing a song;
Robert DeArruda will be singing along.
A note would be the perfect cause
To capture all the people's applause.
Bill Benevides, with his crew-cut top,
Will be a star with his hot be-bop.
To him we leave this saxophone reed,
Something we know he'll always need.
The business tycoon who will get rich quick
Will be Rosemary Borden. What are the tricks?
To her we leave this little bank of clay
To hold all the money she makes for play.
Ultrasonic inter-planetary collect,
Will be invented by Roland Guillet.
So that his contraption won't go askew,
We leave Roland this superior screw.
Our photographer will be Richard K.,
His model, of course, will be Bea Lefaivre.
To Beatrice a comb, to Richard a bird,
We hope their pictures won't be too absurd.
That clever designer, Miss Patricia Knox,
Will succeed in designing the oval box.
This little eraser we're sure she'll need
To rub out the errors caused by her speed.
David Longton will be king of a tropical isle,
His slave will be Ronnie; he'll serve with a smile.
To Ronnie some salve to rub on the pain,
Caused by David with this great big cane.
The gabbers at the movie show,
Will be Jayne M. and David O.
To them we leave boxes of Pep
To help them along and keep them hep.
Pauline and Carol will be ahead
In the business world by making lead.
To help them along when production is low
We leave to them some extra dough.
Connie and Sandra will soon be wed,
They'll serve their husbands breakfast in bed.
To them we leave these rolling pins
To help to keep their husbands in.
A taxi cab driver and a good one at that,
Will be Lorraine Motta in a cute little hat.
If she ever has a flat, she'll need this spare,
We hope that with it, she'll get there.
Jennie Pontes, a model will be,
And pose for Clifford, an artist is he.
These glasses they will need to see
Their pictures in the art gallery.
Betsey and Joan by hook or by crook,
Will someday conquer the English book.
With these dictionaries they will be
Able to go down in history.
Now Jimmy Rose, as everyone knows,
A woodworking career is what he chose.
To him we leave this woodworker's square
With hopes his work will always be fair.
While Kenny sits home minding the babies,
Shirl will be out wrestling the ladies.
To them we leave this pair of pins,
And hope the next ones will be twins.

Ronald and George at their stations will toil.
Selling us folks lots of gas and oil.
We leave these pads for each to fill,
To figure out our gas and oil bill.
Our kindergarten teacher will be Elaine,
We hope the kids don't drive her insane.
To her we leave this piece of chalk
To write on the board the ones that talk.
Howell Carr, that quiet old gent,
Will live like a hermit out in a tent.
To start his fires we leave these matches.
But who'll be there to sew his patches?
A fiddler, Lionel will be,
And play in a symphony.
This "E" string we give to him,
So Lionel won't be grim.
David and Dennis, the Carvalho brothers,
Are going to be woodworkers just like the others.
So this glue to them, as it should seem,
To hold together a wonderful team.
Racing around the track at one-hundred and five,
Is our racer friend Henry, risking his nine lives.
To him we give this speeding car
To help him become a racing star.
David Clark a Romeo will be,
To charm the ladies he sees—
We leave to him this little book.
So at the techniques he can look.
June Clough a hair stylist will be,
And design the latest coiffures for Edith B.
To them we leave these bobby pins
To keep their pretty curls in.
Many people Joan D. will see,
For a nurse she will be.
A thermometer will be her gift
To give her patients a great lift.
Natalie and Marion, secretaries will be,
And thrill their boss by sitting on his knee.
We give to them these brand new desks
To help them do their very best.
Shirley F. will be a famous hair stylist,
Ann M. D. will be her assistant.
To them we leave these bobby pins
To help them with their little whims.
Douglas Grant, no matter what you say,
Will certainly be a mechanic some day.
So to him we leave this wrench
To help him progress along the way.
Wilma Rose, a secretary will be,
Just like the one on TV.
This little pencil she will need
To take down the notes at a rapid speed.

The owners of the largest cosmetics place
Will be Ruthy and Irene; they'll fix your face.
To them we leave some emery sticks
To fix all city folks, and maybe some hicks.
The actress of the 60's will be
That charming girl we call Libby.
This big gold star we're sure you'll see
On the dressing room door of our star to be.
The greatest bank robber in history
Will be Dolores Silva, yessirree.
To her we leave this little squirt gun
To shoot at the cops when she's on the run.
The wonderful book writer with good reviews
Will be Eleanor Souza; isn't that news.
To her we leave—it's hard to decide,
A bottle of ink to keep by her side.
Weston Stafford to Hollywood will go,
A divorce rate higher than Gable's he'll show.
This little black book we leave to him
So he can jot his dates within.
When you sail on the high seas,
Watch for Ellis, a frogman he'll be.
These lifesavers we leave to him
In case his chances are very slim.
Carolyn, enlighten us please,
As to what you are going to be.
With those eyes and flirty looks
We'll have to leave you a date book.
Jimmy Wallace, the famous pretzel bender,
Will be noted for the service he will render.
To him we leave a bottle of beer
To quench his thirst and bring good cheer.
Victor Westgate a carpenter will be,
Building houses for you and me.
To him we leave this tape measure,
Something he can use and treasure.
Our good friend Carlton Willett,
A career he hasn't decided yet.
To help him along the way, it appears
We should give to him a book of careers.
Barbara Woodis, as we all know,
Will be queen of the kitchen, so—
We leave to her this spool of thread
To sew her patches when she has wed.
Ora Wordell, but not for long,
For she'll be marching to the wedding song.
To her we leave this fork and spoon
And hope she'll think of us on her honeymoon.

Class History

Our Freshman year was a mixture of attending football games, dances, and making new buddies; Meeting new teachers and being snowed under by studies, studies, studies.

We entered Dighton High School for the first time at 7:45, September 5, 1952. With defiance in our bearings, but trembling in our limbs, we made it through the maze of corridors to rooms 14N and 14S. Our first step toward stabilization was the election of our class officers who were Richard Kherlopian, President; Gilbert Amaral, Vice President; David Longton, Secretary; and Rose Marie Goulart, Treasurer. As Student Council representatives we chose Ruth Ann Sears and Rosemary Borden.

We made our contributions to the football team in the persons of Richard Kherlopian, Ellis Strange, James Wallace, and Weston Stafford. We had as cheerleader, Libby Sherman.

Much to our horror, we were informed that we were to sponsor a dance. Despite our lack of knowledge in this field, our first dance was a great success.

Basketball season was upon us and to our great surprise and pleasure William Duarte made the Varsity.

Our next achievement was first place in the magazine drive. By now our treasury was beginning to grow.

For Mardi Gras representatives we chose Weston Stafford and Sandra Copeland. Our next big undertaking was a play to be presented before the school in assembly.

Before we knew it finals were upon us; but not too soon were they over, along with our Freshman year. Now we were looking forward to our second year at Dighton High School.

Our Christmas Dance, the play contest
and Magazine drive
Kept us all so busy.
Not to mention our endless supply of books
Which drove us positively dizzy.

Upon returning to Dighton High School the following September, we felt a little more sure of ourselves.

We began our second year by electing our class officers: Clifford Wood, President; James Rose, Vice President; Sandra Copeland, Secretary; and Weston Stafford, Treasurer. Our Student Council representatives were Gilbert Amaral and Richard Spencer.

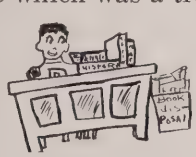
We supplied the football team with Ellis Strange, William Duarte, and Richard Kherlopian.

This was the year we sponsored the Christmas Dance which was a tremendous success. Our other achievement was to take first place in the magazine drive. The treasury was on the upward swing.

Dighton High School was amazed at the array of talent displayed by our class at the talent assembly.

Mardi Gras time was here again with Lorraine Motta and William Duarte as our able representatives.

We climaxed our second year by defeating the Freshmen in the Play Contest. And before we knew it vacation time was facing us again. We certainly needed a vacation.



Upperclassmen that's what we were
And we were ever the proudest
We rid ourselves of some of our books
And went to the games to cheer the loudest.

Well, here we were, back at Dighton High School with only two more years to go.

As upperclassmen we chose Clifford Wood, President; Gilbert Amaral, Vice President; Wilma Rose, Secretary; and Weston Stafford, Treasurer. For Student Council representatives we chose Elaine Broadbent and Dolores Silva.

Football season found us cheering for our representatives who were Ellis Strange, David Clark, Gilbert Amaral, David Longton, Richard Ferreira, Richard Kherlopian and William Duarte.

This was the year we had the most successful football dance that Dighton High School had ever seen. Our treasury was growing by leaps and bounds.

For our Mardi Gras representatives we chose Clifford Wood and Lorraine Motta, who rode in on the prize winning float.

Before we knew it we were at our Junior Prom, a paradise of Moonlight and Roses; a lot of work but a lot of fun, too.

In our last year at Dighton High school we got right down to business by electing Clifford Wood, President; Wilma Rose, Vice President; Dolores Silva, Treasurer; and Elaine Broadbent, Secretary. As our Student Council representatives we chose Eugenia Pontes and Gilbert Amaral. Clifford Wood was elected President of the Student Council this year.

Our first big project was our yearbook which seemed to be a never ending task, but under the capable leadership of Clifford Wood, Editor; Wilma Rose and Judith Atwood, Co-Editors, we think we have managed to complete this task in a satisfactory manner.

The Christmas card sale, the magazine drive and the paper drive, all helped to make our treasury go over the top.

The honor of being King of the Mardi Gras was given to Gilbert Amaral, and our lovely Queen was Elaine Broadbent.

William Duarte won honor and glory on the basketball court for our class as well as for the school by breaking six Narry League records.

Ellis Strange and Richard Ferreira, co-captains of the football team this year, were backed up by Richard Kherlopian, Weston Stafford, William Duarte, William Benevides, David Longton, David Clark, Gilbert Amaral, David Carvalho, Dennis Carvalho, and Manager Kenneth Rose. Elaine Broadbent, captain of the cheerleaders, was assisted by Shirley Horton and Natalie Dulak. We were very proud of them.

Honor Society members who brought added prestige to our class were Nancy Cornell, James Rose, Sandra Copeland, Dolores Silva, Rosemary Borden, Wilma Rose, Pauline Medeiros, Marion Carpenter, Clifford Wood, and Joan DeMoranville.

We ended our Junior year with Class Day when Rosemary Borden and Joan DeMoranville brought greater honor to our class by receiving the Chase, French, and D.A.R. History awards respectively.

Whew! Never thought we'd make it.
Studies behind us, we're Seniors at last.
And after graduation we'll go our separate ways.
To pursue our futures so brilliant and vast.

We chose Elaine Broadbent as our D.A.R. representative, and Clifford Wood as our Good Government Day representative.

At last February 20, Washington bound. What a shame that it was over so soon. We all had such a wonderful time.

Now preparations for the play contest were underway. As usual we displayed a great show of acting ability. Next came the talent assembly. Boy, what hidden talent we uncovered.

With the arrival of our last Junior Prom, graduation rehearsals and selection of graduation speakers, Clifford Wood and Sandra Copeland, we realized with a pang of remorse that our high school days would soon be over and each of us would go our separate ways. We will never forget the wonderful fun we have had at Dighton High School. We thank our beloved friend and advisor, Mrs. Smith; and we also thank the teachers who have helped so much in order that we get ahead in the world.

AMARAL—SHEEHAN

On Oct. 29, in St. Mary's Church, Jo Ann Sheehan, niece of Mrs. Francis A. Casey of 87 Washington St., became the bride of Gilbert Amaral Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Amaral of 709 Winthrop St., Dighton.

Rev. Gerald T. Shovelton officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Sandra Sheehan of Providence served as maid of honor at her sister's wedding, while best man was Peter St. Germain, a cousin of the bride.

Bridesmaids included Mrs. Richard Archikowski of Taunton, a cousin of the bridegroom; Regina Penacho of Dighton, a niece of the bridegroom; and Jean St. Langton of Berkley, Richard Archikowski of Taunton, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Theodore St. Germain of Taunton, a cousin of the bride.

Given in marriage by her Godfather, Raymond St. Germain, the bride wore a gown of candlelight peau de soie in princess style, fashioned with a scoop neckline of re-embroidered lace with pearls and a bouffant skirt ending in a chapel length train.

Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught up by a matching head piece of pearl trimmed candlelight illusion.

She carried a prayer book centered with white orchids and stephanotis in a cascade style.

The maid of honor wore a copen blue taffeta princess styled shepherdess dress with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. A deeper blue velvet panel down the bustled back was accented by a contrasting bow of taffeta. Her matching bow headpiece had a small circular veil, and she carried a colonial bouquet in pastel shades to complement her gown.

The bridesmaids were identically attired, and carried colonial bouquets in shades of pink accented with blue.

The mother of the bridegroom wore an emerald green velvet dress with chestnut brown accessories.

A reception at the Mt. Hope Club in North Dighton followed the ceremonies.

For her wedding trip to New Hampshire, the bride wore a beige and brown walking suit with a brown collar and dark brown accessories.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Grammar School and Taunton High School, class of 1959, and was employed as an office clerk with the Taunton Travelers, Inc.

The bridegroom, a 1956 graduate of Dighton High School, was a student at the Bridgewater State Teacher's College. He had served with the Marines.

Future home of the couple will be 31 Union St.

MRS. GILBERT AMARAL JR., the former Jo Ann Sheehan, niece of Mrs. Francis A. Casey of 87 Washington St., was married Oct. 29 in St. Mary's Church. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Amaral of 709 Winthrop St., Dighton. (Calvey Photo)

SIMCOCK-ROSE

In an evening service at Berkley Congregational Church April 14, Wilma Ann Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Rose of Berkley St., Berkley, became the bride of Alan R. Simcock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Simcock of Marvel St., Swansea.

Rev. Arthur Kennan officiated at the candlelight service.

Maid of honor was Gloria J. Rose, while best man was Glen Simcock of Swansea. Virginia M. Rose served as bridesmaid, and Richard Levesque of Taunton and Anthony Andrews of Somerset Ave., Dighton, were ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. It was fashioned with a modified sabrina neckline, with long tapered lace sleeves. The V-shaped bodice was tipped with a full bouffant floor-length skirt, which was fashioned of alternate panels of lace and tulle with scattered lace appliques.

She wore a queen's crown of aurora borealis stones from which flowed a tapered, waist-length veil. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of gardinias, babies breath, and stephanotis flowers.

Maid of honor wore a turquoise lace sheath dress fashioned with a taffeta overskirt and matching bow headbands. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of carnations centered with a rose. The bridesmaid was similarly attired.

A reception in the church hall followed the nuptial ceremonies.

For her wedding trip to Washington, D. C., and Virginia, the bride wore a three-piece suit of stone green checks.

The bride, a 1956 graduate of Dighton High School, is a cashier at Beneficial Finance Co.'s Taunton office.

The bridegroom, who attended Case High School, is employed by his father.

The couple are now residing at a Marvel St. address in Swansea.

Benevides-Clough Wedding Is Held

August 1958

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Benevides Jr. (June Clough) are residing at North Main Street, Berkley. They were married by the Rev. John Galvin at a double-ring service at St. Peter Church, Berkley.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Clough of Berkley, was given in marriage by her father. Mr. and Mrs. Richard King of Taunton were attendants. The bridegroom's parents reside in Dighton.

The bride's gown of alencon lace, over taffeta, was fashioned with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a waltz length skirt. Her fingertip veil was held with a crown of lace and rhinestones. She carried a colonial bouquet.

The matron of honor wore a gown of ice blue silk organza, a matching picture hat, with a crown of blue forget-me-nots, and she carried a colonial bouquet. Mrs. Clinton Rose was organist and Lawrence Dutra, soloist at the church where decorations were white chrysanthemums and carnations. The reception was at the Golden Pheasant, Berkley.

The bride's mother chose a white picture hat and pink rose corsage for her blue silk print dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a green print dress, white hat and white roses.

For traveling the bride wore a blue print dress, white accessories and a white gardenia. She was graduated from Dighton High School and Mansfield Beauty Culture Academy, Boston. The bridegroom, who was graduated from Dighton High School, is a student at Bryant College, Providence.
